Pharmacist Michael and wellness advocate Yan, alongside a diverse team of healthcare professionals—including a physician, physiotherapist, and Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) practitioner—conducted years of in-depth research to create stage-specific Prenatal Ease maternity vitamins and products. Their goal was to simplify the decision-making process for parents, making it easier to choose effective, high-quality solutions that seamlessly integrate into their lives.

Dimpleskins Naturals was founded in Jen Casey's kitchen in 2001, ignited by her commitment to creating safe, chemical-free products for her family. After the birth of her first child, Jen faced challenges in finding suitable options, which led her to leverage her expertise in Aromatherapy and Holistic Nutrition to develop her own balms and salves for home use.

Now, two decades later, the original formulas remain unchanged and continue to be crafted with care in British Columbia. Dimpleskins is proud to have signed the PETA pledge, ensuring that all raw ingredients and finished products are cruelty-free. With a focus on quality and ethics, Dimpleskins Naturals remains dedicated to providing families with trustworthy, effective solutions.

Imp Prints paint is meticulously handcrafted in small batches in British Columbia, offering a safe and simple way to create lasting hand and footprint impressions. Designed with a unique formula that resembles traditional finger paint, Imp Prints is thinner and dries more quickly, ensuring that it won't saturate the paper.

This results in a beautiful, light translucent print that can be applied on a plain background or layered over text for added creativity. Committed to safety, Imp Prints hand and footprint paint is non-toxic and easily removable, washing off effortlessly with baby wipes or soap and water. Capture precious memories with confidence using Imp Prints.

CustomFit™ Breast Flanges

The Ameda CustomFit Breast Pump Flange kit helps make breast pumping comfortable and helps mom pump more milk when the fit is just right. Using the correct flange sizing can contribute to a more efficient pumping process. Using the wrong size can cause discomfort and reduce the effectiveness of your pump. If pumping causes discomfort, even on a low suction setting, you may need a different breast flange size. If you are having trouble making a good seal you may need a different flange size. Ameda® HygieniKit® Milk Collection Systems come with a standard size 25mm flange.

PumpEase is the original hands-free pumping bra designed in Canada by moms, for moms. It will hold your pump's flanges in place, allowing your hands to be free to do other things. PumpEase comes in sizes to fit everyone. The highly technical fabric simply wraps around the bust and closes at the front using hook and eye closures to get the best fit possible.

FLEXIBILITY: PumpEase can accommodate ALL makes and sizes of breast pump flanges guaranteed. PumpEase can be worn by itself or over any nursing bra/cami/top you choose.

QUALITY: PumpEase is made with a high-quality technical fabric. It is easy to care for and has quick-dry and moisture wicking qualities. Won't stretch, bag out, or fade with multiple use and washes.

FIT: PumpEase fits moms wearing bra sizes from 32AA to 48H — the biggest size range of any hands-free pumping bra.

ACCESSIBILITY: PumpEase uses hook and eye closures because it's much quieter and highly adjustable to maintain a snug fit.

MILK PRODUCTION: PumpEase isn't stiff or overly structured so you can massage or compress your breasts while you pump to encourage higher breastmilk output.

How to Fit your Ameda Hands Free Pumping Bra:

Measure around the fullest part of your bustline with the tape measure running under your arms - the tape should be snug, but not constricting. Make sure the tape is not sagging at the back and it is parallel to the floor.

PumpEase® Available Inventory

Use an existing maternity or nursing bra size as a guideline and refer to the chart. It's best to be fit for a nursing bra during the last month of pregnancy and avoid being fit for a nursing bra in the first two weeks after giving birth as it won't provide accurate sizing. It is recommended to size down if bordering two sizes.

Protect Sore or Sensitive Nipples

Mamivac nipple shields are hypo-allergenic and made of thin, tasteless silicone to facilitate latch and to aid in comfort while breastfeeding. They come in multiple sizes and shapes to fit all needs. Mamivac nipple shields are for short-term use for latch assistance, to help with flat inverted nipples or sore/ sensitive nipples. Mamivac has a unique and ergonomic shape designed to keep skin-to-skin contact during breastfeeding between mom and baby.

The conical-shaped shield has straight sidewalls right to the base. It does not indent down the shaft of the shield's nipple. It is slightly wider at the base of the nipple than the tip. Mom's nipple will usually extend into the shield's tip while the baby is latched and nursing.

The cherry shape can be particularly helpful for baby with sucking difficulties such as tongue tie because it is rounded and offers an indent so baby can "catch" onto nipple rather than continuing to slide down shaft.

For nearly 30 years TensCare has been on the cutting edge for pain management and incontinence therapy. TENS (transcutaneous electrical nerve stimulation) and EMS (electrical muscle stimulation) are ultra safe and easy to use. TensCare has a full range of devices for pain therapy including labour pains and pelvic health.

There is a lot of scientific and medical evidence behind the effectiveness of TENS in alleviating childbirth pain. It is effective not just during the birth but also helps with back pains during pregnancy and can help with a quicker postpartum recovery. TensCare has many years experience in providing a modern, safe, drug-free solution for labour pain. TensCare has also been helping people manage their incontinence for almost as long as managing labour. Incontinence can be caused by a weak pelvic floor, and that is where a pelvic floor exerciser can come in. You don't have to live with a leaky bladder.
